Re: Case 17-03283-LTS
Doc#4416-4
Objection to Duplicate Bond Claims

Dear Judge Taylor:

This is all wrong. Just received a big packet informing that my claim, and many others, were duplicated. They were duplicated because the trustees never notified their customers that they would be filing a claim. Please rule immediately that the trustees notify the bondholders that they are being represented and do not have to fill in any claim and/or additional paperwork. And failure to do so will entail a hefty fine. This would have saved a lot of effort, money, and paper to you, the court, and claimants. In fact, you should charge the trustees for all the expenses incurred and make them responsible for future situations.

Second, my privacy has been violated by sending the whole list to all the claimants. The list includes names, addresses, amounts invested, etc. I sincerely hope no one encounters any future problems due to this breach of privacy, but it is really alarming that all our information is out there. In addition to the nightmare of seeing our lifetime savings lost by the decisions of insensitive government leaders, we must now watch that our identities are not stolen. I am close to 69 and I certainly don't need to worry about this too.

Last, but not least, I hope that a final decision is reached in January 2019, and it is duly notified to each and every claimant (in this particular case, not to the trustee) and in such a manner that it is clear enough for tax purposes in order to take the loss. It has been such a rollercoaster that I am sure we all share the same feeling of wanting this to be over once and for all.

Sincerely yours,

Doris Boyer

The Honorable Taylor Swain:

For over a century, Wall Street and U.S. multinational corporations have been raiding the cover of the Government of Puerto Rico and its citizens with the backing of Congress. Since the 1898 Treaty of Paris obtaining Puerto Rico as a war bounty (after Puerto Rico had obtained independence from Spain), to the 1917 Jones Act limiting imports and exports to the island on US flag ships, to today's Financial Board Congress has maintained and exacerbated the colonial status of Puerto Rico.

ONLY YOU CAN CHANGE THIS! The well-being of the citizens of Puerto Rico is in your hands.

Respectfully,

Arturo R. Acevedo

Dear Honorable Judge Taylor Swain,

I am Francisco Cabanillas. I write to you because I am very disappointed and worried about the actions that the Financial Oversight and Management Board (FOMB) is taking to address the fiscal crisis. The agreement made with COFINA bondholders will drag Puerto Rico into another never-ending economic crisis that will lead Puerto Rico into another debt default and will only cause more harsh austerity measures, cuts in public services and pensions. The measures dictated by the FOMB have been implemented in a disorganized, illogical, and irresponsible manner so far, endangering the safety of citizens, limiting thousands of Puerto Ricans from a real opportunity to get affordable education and healthcare, and limiting the capacity of people to become and remain employed in the island.

Instead of just moving forward with this unjust and anti-constitutional agreement, we request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that is legal, fair and not burdensome for the country. The weak attempts of the board to fake an audit process are not going to work on us; we know this debt has been imposed on Puerto Rico without a due process of a real comprehensive audit that allows us to really know how the debt was issued and to ensure that it is paid justly and legally. Please do what is right and rule against this agreement on January 16th's hearing.

Sincerely,

Francisco Cabanillas

Regards, Mrs. Judge,

We respectfully to express that I am against the decision of the Senate of Puerto Rico regarding the payment of fund cofina. In the first place, there was no correct evaluation for this decision. Commit public welfare funds, when there are other ways to make payments. We understand that this is a case that the Fiscal Control Board should have a work it. Since for those particular matters is that the JCF was created. It is unfortunate that there is a video where they denied the right of expression to a senator who wanted to express, because he was against the consequences that would face our country to be approved this project without the seriousness and consistency of it. This measure is a violation of democracy and we demand justice.

Thanking him for his valuable attention

The agreement by the Promesa backed fiscal control board and the COFINA bondholders is an illegal encroachment on the future generations of the U. S. citizens that reside on the island of Puerto Rico. The P. R. constitution is a federal law approved by Congress and Congress knew and or should have known ever since April ,1961 that Public Law 87-121 of August 3, 1961, and section 2 of Article VI of the Constitution of Puerto Rico, explicitly prohibit the issuance of public debt in excess of fifteen (15%) percent of the average of the collections of the tax revenues in P.R. for the two (2) years preceding the year of each issuance of public debt.

Dear Honorable Judge Taylor Swain,

I am Monica Rios Cabanillas. I write to you because I am very disappointed and worried about the actions that the Financial Oversight and Management Board (FOMB) is taking to address the fiscal crisis. The agreement made with COFINA bondholders will drag Puerto Rico into another never-ending economic crisis that will lead Puerto Rico into another debt default and will only cause more harsh austerity measures, cuts in public services and pensions. The measures dictated by the FOMB have been implemented in a disorganized, illogical, and irresponsible manner so far, endangering the safety of citizens, limiting thousands of Puerto Ricans from a real opportunity to get affordable education and healthcare, and limiting the capacity of people to become and remain employed in the island.

Instead of just moving forward with this unjust and anti-constitutional agreement, we request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that is legal, fair and not burdensome for the country. The weak attempts of the board to fake an audit process are not going to work on us; we know this debt has been imposed on Puerto Rico without a due process of a real comprehensive audit that allows us to really know how the debt was issued and to ensure that it is paid justly and legally. Please do what is right and rule against this agreement on January 16th's hearing.

Sincerely,

Monica Rios Cabanillas

Hi. My name is Xavier, resident of Seattle and originally from PR. I write to you because I am very worried about the actions that the Financial Oversight and Management Board (FOMB) is taking to address the fiscal crisis. We know that Trump's government is here to look out for the millionaires interests. We the people only rely on judges to look out for us. The agreement made with COFINA bondholders will drag Puerto Rico into another never-ending economic crisis that will lead Puerto Rico into another debt default and will only cause more harsh austerity measures, cuts in public services and pensions. The measures dictated by the FOMB have been implemented in a disorganized, illogical, and irresponsible manner so far, endangering the safety of citizens, limiting thousands of Puerto Ricans from a real opportunity to get affordable education and healthcare, and limiting the capacity of people to become and remain employed in the island.

Also, part of the debt could be illegal as per the PR constitution and it needs to be audited. Instead of just moving forward with this unjust and anti-constitutional agreement, we request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that is legal, fair and not burdensome for the country. JUDGE TAYLOR SWAIN's EMAIL:

Estimada Honorable Juez Taylor Swain,

Paz y bien para usted.

Yo soy Awilda Santos Torres, maestra pensionada del gobierno de Puerto Rico. Estoy muy preocupada de cómo se ha estado atendiendo y manejando la crisis fiscal del país y por consiguiente la desesperanza provocada en todos los maestros pensionados y otros empleados públicos.

“Le escribo porque estoy muy decepcionado y preocupado por las acciones que está llevando a cabo la Junta de Supervisión y Administración Financiera (FOMB) para enfrentar la crisis fiscal. El acuerdo alcanzado con los tenedores de bonos de COFINA arrastrará a Puerto Rico a otra crisis económica interminable que llevará a Puerto Rico a otro impago de deuda y solo causará medidas de austeridad más severas, recortes en los servicios públicos y pensiones. Las medidas dictadas por el FOMB se han implementado de manera desorganizada, ilógica e irresponsable hasta el momento, poniendo en peligro la seguridad de los ciudadanos, limitando a miles de puertorriqueños de una oportunidad real de obtener educación y atención médica asequibles, y limitando la capacidad de las personas para ser y permanecer empleado en la isla.

En lugar de seguir adelante con este acuerdo injusto y anticonstitucional, solicitamos una renegociación justa de los acuerdos que sean legales, justos y no gravosos para el país. Los débiles intentos de la junta de falsificar un proceso de auditoria no van a funcionar en nosotros; sabemos que esta deuda se impuso a Puerto Rico sin el debido proceso de una auditoria integral real que permita saber realmente cómo se emitió la deuda y garantizar que se pague de manera justa y legal. Por favor, haga lo correcto y descarte este acuerdo en la audiencia del 16 de enero de 2019.”

PROMESA litigation - proposed COFINA settlement

Dear Judge Swain,

I am an attorney licensed in Puerto Rico. I have not appeared in any matter related to PROMESA, nor do I represent any bondholder of any type whatsoever.

Indeed, I have declined to undertake such representations because of my concerns regarding the legality of all bonds issued by the Puerto Rico government and related entities.

Since 2014, I have written and published my views and advocated for Puerto Rico's need to adjudicate the validity of all bonds currently outstanding. This includes COFINA bonds -- the most legally suspect class of bonds.

To approve a settlement concerning COFINA bonds would validate this dubious vehicle designed specifically to evade the constitutional debt limit and balanced budget requirements of the Puerto Rico constitution. Such a settlement will leave the door open to future illegal borrowings and invite more crises in the decades to come.

Looking at the thousands of docket entries in the PROMESA cases, I am appalled that it was not the central mission of the Oversight Board and the Commonwealth government to secure clear judicial rulings and precedents concerning the validity of the island's bonds and the limits of its borrowing authority.

Nothing else can protect the innocent and defenseless members of our population who have been saddled with the horrific financial burden at the hands of unscrupulous politicians, professional advisers, and financial institutions.

Sincerely,

David R. Martin

Dear Honorable Judge Taylor Swain,

I am Marlon Jijon Aguirre [REDACTED]

I humbly write to you because I am very disappointed and worried about the actions that the Financial Oversight and Management Board (FOMB) is taking to address the fiscal crisis.

The agreement made with COFINA bondholders will drag Puerto Rico into another never-ending economic crisis that will lead Puerto Rico into another debt default and will only cause more harsh austerity measures, cuts in public services and pensions.

We request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that is legal, fair and not burdensome for the country. We know this debt has been imposed on Puerto Rico without a due process of a real comprehensive audit that allows us to really know how the debt was issued and to ensure that it is paid justly and legally. The audit will cost so much less than what the government of Puerto Rico has spent on the FOMB's expenses. The FOMB has stated that an audit is useless, and I have never heard such a statement be true.

Please do what is right. Save us, the citizens of Puerto Rico, and rule against this agreement on January 16th's 2019 hearing.

Please Judge Taylor, we the people of Puerto Rico, respectfully , ask you to REJECT the agreement between Cofina bondholders and the Financial Oversight and Management Board as it will drag Puerto Rico into another economic crisis, due to the imposition of more austerity measures, cuts in public services and pensions, and would lead to a new debt default. Instead, we request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that are not burdensome for the country.

----- WHY?

Puerto Rico is under the control of a Junta created by the US Congress. This Junta formed an agreement with COFINA, an illegal fund to pay bond-holders, that will further austerity measures against the Puerto Rican people. The judge in charge of approving this deal will render her decision on January 16, 2019. She needs to hear our message against this agreement, as it will succumb the Puerto Rican people to 40 years of further austerity measures to pay a debt the US Government refuses to audit.

For over 120 years Puerto Ricans have been left out of important decision making conversations and processes that affect them greatly. We can change this! The Puerto Rican community needs Judge Taylor Swain to listen to them and their allies. We need her to hear from all of us before her next hearing, in which she will make her final decision about the Board and Cofina agreement. The hearing will be on January 16 at 10:30 am in Puerto Rico's Federal Court.

For the future wellness of the Puertorican citizens and our children's!

Warm regards and Merry Christmas!

Hello, Im asking you to please Reject the agreement between cofina bondholders and the financial oversight and management board. This will drag our country into another economic crisis

December 20th, 2018

Hon. Judge Laura Swain,

My Family has been in Municipal Finance for over 43 years. We have always lent our money to cities and municipalities in good faith, knowing that these finance mechanisms produce the very fabric that holds the United States together. That being said, it has been extremely hard for me to understand how the COFINA securitization has gotten to where it is today.

When you were appointed, I was confident that there was finally someone to get control of all the seemingly ridiculous actions by the Puerto Rican Gov't to avoid paying any and all of their debt obligations. However, month after month, it seems all you've done is emboldened them to push harder in this respect. Never did I think that politics would play such a strong role in breaking laws and liens, which to date some of which were always viewed as sacrosanct in the municipal finance community. The United States and its citizens continue to rely on these laws and liens because without them, many places would not get the funds they, in some respects, so desperately need. One of the most fundamental principles in the history of the United States is the protections afforded to us by the takings clause which prevents the taking of personal property without just compensation. This is just one of the many founding principles our country has that distinguish us from many others in the world today.

Everyday there are normal citizen's that sign contracts with financial institutions and even the gov't in some situations, knowing that there are severe consequences if they don't fulfill those contracts on time and in full. Yet Puerto Rico, with its ability to pay in the COFINA case, is able to say "we don't want to pay our debt anymore". Is this the way finance works now? Is the gov't able to just come and take the property that I lent to them in good faith at their pleasure without just compensation? What message are we going to send future municipal bond investors? Where was the oversight by elected officials in our governing bodies on the mainland over the last 10 years? As a territory of the United States, the United States Federal Government should have had a firm hand in what those politicians on the island were doing and how they were doing it.

COFINA, to date, has always been a solvent and very successful entity in its collections. This is the main reason so many people on and off the island had lent Puerto Rico our hard earned money during a time of crisis. The Statutory Lien and pledged revenue are and have been, able to cover both Senior and Subordinate bondholders. However Senior bondholders are now to receive a 93% + all the cash being held in escrow? The recovery for Subordinate bondholders are set to only receive a 56.4% recovery and none of the cash that we are rightfully owed? Even the GDB Deal obtained a more favorable remedy. The GDB bonds by nature are appropriation debt and I know this type of debt sits much lower in priority than a dedicated statutory lien. This is exactly why the ratings at origination were so very different.

This "Adjustment Plan or Exchange" which has been presented to mom and pop investors, appears to have been manipulated by many of the parties involved. Some of which I learned had insider knowledge and were able to continue trading in the secondary market. I should not have to site the paper trail that proves this. The most recent article on McKinsey is one that's very concerning. The Liens and Laws in this case appear to have been broken. This Plan is certainly not fair to all relevant stakeholders in the case. One of the most glaring inequities is the fact that U.S. Subordinate bondholders who live on the mainland will recover 56.4% of face value, while Puerto Rico Subordinate bondholders on the island will recover 58.4% even though they are of the same class and own the same type of bonds. According to PROMESA guidelines, which nobody involved seems to be following, the Plan is illegal. The Court has a fiduciary responsibility to make sure all bondholders are treated fairly and that those in the same class are treated equally. That's really just the start.

I'm sure there are many, many people that wish they could just not pay their credit cards, mortgage, car payment, personal loans, and of course we all hate paying interest on these obligations but this is what makes the financial systems work. When you don't honor debts after passing laws and making the terms very clear, there are usually severe consequences. The sales tax structure is a fantastic structure and one that is being utilized in many different areas. Your decisions in these cases will have long lasting consequences as they also relate to lockboxes and sales tax securitizations elsewhere. The United States continues to give Puerto Rico taxpayer funds for the recovery of Hurricane Maria but let us not forget that it was not the hurricane that enabled these serious issues to froth. The hurricane, from my opinion, is being used however as a pawn in the political arena.

The Commonwealth's unemployment rate is around 8%, the lowest in decades. Sales tax revenues continue to come in at record levels. The Puerto Rico Treasury has $12 billion of cash in various accounts, 800 of which were at one time maliciously hidden from the public. The majority of this money is obviously the result of not paying annual debt service for almost 3 years amounting to around $3+ billion a year. At the same time, the Puerto Rico government is crying poor without proper audits, they've proposed lower taxes, raised the minimum wage for government workers, some of whom haven't been showing up to work but the real cherry on top is the fact the governor recently paid out lofty Christmas bonuses amounting to over 80 million dollars. This whole situation has been one big slap in the face to the mom and pop investor. At the end of the day, it appears Puerto Rico's willingness to pay its debt should be more in question than its ability to pay its debt.

It is a matter of record that corruption, mistrust and mismanagement were the reason the secured COFINA structure had to be created. A structure that did not allow the Puerto Rico Treasury access to bondholder pledged revenue streams was necessary. It seems that the overall intent of the COFINA Statutory Lien was to make bondholders feel secure enough to lend money to Puerto Rico and as a result, most individuals purchased the highly rated Subordinate COFINA bonds prior to when the U.S. Congress passed the Puerto Rico Oversight Management and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA).

In closing, we purchased these bonds in good faith for the following reasons:

- 1.) A Priority Statutory Lien on pledged dedicated sales tax revenue that was more than sufficient to pay all COFINA debt. The dedicated revenue was unavailable to the government of Puerto Rico.
- 2.) High investment grade rating when issued, "A+" second only to Senior COFINA bonds which were slightly higher rated by one notch "AA-". A long term Subordinate COFINA bond's market value was equivalent to around 1 to 2 points or 1 to 2% less than a similar senior bond's market value. (Under the proposed Plan the difference in recovery between Seniors and Subordinate bonds is around 40 points or 40%.)
- 3.) Legal assurance from the Puerto Rico government that by law the Puerto Rico treasury did not have access to the pledged revenues and such was stated in Official Offering Statements for General Obligation (GO) and COFINA bonds issues. The Puerto Rico government also was obligated to defend the COFINA bond structure, which they are now attacking. The Commonwealth and its Agencies had to take all steps necessary to meet their obligations because up until June 2016, the Commonwealth did not have access to Chapter 9 bankruptcy or any form of debt adjustment. In June 2016 PROMESA was created as a mechanism to reduce Puerto Rico's debt by respecting bondholder rights, priority of payment and legal Liens.

I understand that this is one of the biggest bankruptcy cases in the history of municipal finance but fortunately for historians, there is a very long paper trail of material to work with. This outward theft of property rights will eventually be looked on as the biggest travesty not only for the market as a whole but especially for the people of Puerto Rico, who will eventually need the support of the municipal bond community for decades to come. The ramifications of such actions on the overall market will set one of the strongest precedents and I can only suggest that you don't fall to the wrong side of history. The consequences of your decisions, as I'm sure you are well aware, will dictate where the industry goes from here.

RESPECTFULLY,

TRAVIS A. KNADLE
MUNICIPAL BOND INVESTOR

Estimada Honorable Juez Taylor Swain,

Yo soy Adryanna Müller. Le escribo porque estoy muy decepcionado y preocupado por las acciones que está llevando a cabo la Junta de Supervisión y Administración Financiera (FOMB, por sus siglas en inglés) para enfrentar la crisis fiscal. En el acuerdo alcanzado con los bonistas COFINA arrastrará a Puerto Rico a otra crisis económica interminable que llevará a Puerto Rico a otro impago de deuda y solo causará medidas de austeridad más severas, recortes en los servicios públicos y pensiones. Solicitamos una renegociación justa de los acuerdos que sean legales, justos y no gravosos para el país. Sabemos que esta deuda se impuso a Puerto Rico sin el debido proceso de una auditoría integral que nos permita saber realmente cómo se emitió la deuda y garantizar que se pague de manera justa y legal. Thou Honor:

Puerto Rico is in the path of misery and poverty because the people that represent them in this negotiation are solely in the debtors interests.

As a matter of fact they were hand picked, not by vote, but to do so.

You have a golden opportunity to spark the light that will clear darkness in this matters.

I respectfully urge you to reject this arrangement and order the parts to bring to the table alternatives less oppressive that 40 years of punishment to our people that do not have the right to vote on matters that affects generations of their peers.

In solidarity.

Thanks for reading this email.

I'm a senior physician still active on the island and am very concerned with the COFINA agreement negotiated by the imposed anti democratic Oversight Board and "casually" okeyed by the puertorican politicians.

This agreement is totally one sided in favor of the bond holders of a debt that hasn't been audited and will secure that our people remain in precarious living conditions for many decades, including our children and grandchildren.

I hereby request that you refuse to accept this agreement.

Wishing you happy holidays,

Dear Honorable Judge Taylor Swain,

I am Anita Yudkin, from Puerto Rico. I write to you because I am very disappointed and worried about the actions that the Financial Oversight and Management Board (FOMB) is taking to address the fiscal crisis. The agreement made with COFINA bondholders will drag Puerto Rico into another never-ending economic crisis that will lead Puerto Rico into another debt default and will only cause more harsh austerity measures, cuts in public services and pensions. We request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that is legal, fair and not burdensome for the country. We know this debt has been imposed on Puerto Rico without a due process of a real comprehensive audit that allows us to really know how the debt was issued and to ensure that it is paid justly and legally. Please do what is right and rule against this agreement on January 16th's 2019 hearing.

Dear Honorable Judge Taylor Swain,

I am _Ilia Castanon_____. I write to you because I am very disappointed and worried about the actions that the Financial Oversight and Management Board (FOMB) is taking to address the fiscal crisis. The agreement made with COFINA bondholders will drag Puerto Rico into another never-ending economic crisis that will lead Puerto Rico into another debt default and will only cause more harsh austerity measures, cuts in public services and pensions. We request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that is legal, fair and not burdensome for the country. We know this debt has been imposed on Puerto Rico without a due process of a real comprehensive audit that allows us to really know how the debt was issued and to ensure that is it paid justly and legally. Please do what is right and rule against this agreement on January 16th's 2019 hearing.

Sincerely, Ilia Castanon

Yo soy Irán Rodríguez Alemán. Le escribo porque estoy muy decepcionado y preocupado por las acciones que está llevando a cabo la Junta de Supervisión y Administración Financiera (FOMB, por sus siglas en inglés) para enfrentar la crisis fiscal. En el acuerdo alcanzado con los bonistas COFINA arrastrará a Puerto Rico a otra crisis económica interminable que llevará a Puerto Rico a otro impago de deuda y solo causará medidas de austeridad más severas, recortes en los servicios públicos y pensiones. Solicitamos una renegociación justa de los acuerdos que sean legales, justos y no gravosos para el país. Sabemos que esta deuda se impuso a Puerto Rico sin el debido proceso de una auditoría integral que nos permita saber realmente cómo se emitió la deuda y garantizar que se pague de manera justa y legal. Dear Judge Swain:

Merry Christmas!

Many of us here in Puerto Rico appreciate your firm and fair posture in dealing with the mess that our government has built up over the years, and that has resulted in PROMESA.

Understanding that your job is, first and foremost, to apply the law as it is, and not as we wish it were, I would like to make some brief points:

- 1) Though Puerto Rico's elected governments have certainly been irresponsible, they operated within constraints set by the federal government, which we don't elect. And it was a change in those constraints—the elimination of Section 936 of the Internal Revenue Code in the 1990's—that sent our economy into the tailspin from which it has yet to recover. If the economy hadn't tanked, we wouldn't be where we are.
- 2) There are many possible deals that can be made, and the one before you concerning COFINA has been struck by interests very distant from ours in Puerto Rico.
- 3) The people who created this mess won't be the ones paying to clean it up, namely my fellow Puerto Ricans and myself... and the next two generations after us, the way the COFINA deal is now set up.
- 4) A full, independent, forensic audit would help identify those who benefited from Puerto Rico's debt and, minimally, help prevent that behavior from reasserting itself in our government.
- 5) There is a VERY strong likelihood that, if you approve this deal, PR will be forced into default within the next decade. That's not good for anyone except those few who are profit from these proceedings (several of whom will be standing before you on the 16th).

Please send this one back. Puerto Rico deserves much more... and the hedge funds deserve much less.

My name is Luis Alexis Rodriguez, and am from Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico. I stand with my people on our struggle, so I ask you respectfully, to reject COFINA's Agreement in January. I trust that you will evaluate this with sensibility. It is unjust that we, the People of Puerto Rico, give our resources to pay for a malicious debt. The Puerto Rican debt needs to be audited, and those responsible for it must go into justice.

I wish you happy holidays, Judge Swain.

Dear Honorable Judge Taylor Swain,

I am Magaly Santiago, Puertorrican living and working in the island. I write to you because I am very disappointed and worried about the actions that the Financial Oversight and Management Board (FOMB) is taking to address the fiscal crisis. The agreement made with COFINA bondholders will drag Puerto Rico into another never-ending economic crisis that will lead Puerto Rico into another debt default and will only cause more harsh austerity measures, cuts in public services and pensions.

We request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that is legal, fair and not burdensome for the country. Dear Honorable Judge Taylor Swain,

Merry Christmas and best wishes for you and your family. The best gift you can give to the people of Puerto Rico is not approve the COFINA agreement, because the way it was negotiated would be extremely damaging to the country and our people.

I am writing to you, because I am very concerned about the actions that the Financial Supervision and Administration Board (FOMB) is carrying out together with the government to face the fiscal crisis. The agreement reached with the bondholders in COFINA is illegal, which will drag Puerto Rico to another debt default and will cause more crises with more severe austerity measures, cuts in public services, pension reductions to our grandparents and more poverty. We request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that are legal, fair and non-burdensome for the country. We know that this debt was imposed on Puerto Rico without the due process of a comprehensive audit that allows us to really know how the debt was issued so that it is paid fairly and legally. In addition, the agreements were made irresponsibly and against the claims made by the citizens to the legislature. Please do the right thing and dismiss this agreement at the hearing on January 16, 2019.

Sinceramente,

Dr. Marcos Martínez Taverso

Dear Honorable Judge Taylor Swain,

Two months ago, I was in my car on my way to work when I found myself in a small traffic jam. I live in Aguas Buenas, a rural city here. Traffic jams are a rarity here.

When I saw a policeman I ask why the street was blocked. He told me they found a dead body in a car.

You see our fiscal crisis is hitting us all. Big and small. One day is a dead body in the street of a rural city with 48.3% of poverty and another day is finding out that your brother might not be able to afford going to University. This is what austerity looks like. Austerity looks like cutting the education budget by 23% by 2023. The decisions you take, Honorable Judge, will have an impact on my generation. On my brother's Francisco's (22 years) generation and my baby cousin Marcela (6mo old) generation.

I am very worried about the irresponsibility of Financial Oversight and Management Board (FOMB) and the government regarding the agreements with the COFINA bondholders. The agreement will drag Puerto Rico into another never-ending economic crisis that will lead Puerto Rico into another debt default and will only cause more harsh austerity measures, cuts in public services and pensions. Payment agreements like these will limit thousands of Puerto Ricans from a real opportunity to get affordable education and healthcare, and will limit the capacity of people to become and remain employed in the island.

Not only the FOMB and the government were irresponsible but also our Legislature was. When the Legislature changed the law that would enable this agreement to pass they did it during a session in the late evening, without public hearings and even without a discussion on the floor. This was not a democratic process. These people took a decision that will affect generations to come and they didn't give us, THE people of Puerto Rico, the opportunity to express ourselves. The idea that by 2041 we will be able to repay $1 billion dollars is absurd. We only need to look at our demographic rates and GDP growth projections to see that we will not be able to sustain that level of commitment. This agreement is not feasible and we will need to restructure it again and again years from now. But I'm not the only one saying this. Nobel prize winning economists and other prestigious academics are saying it.

I request a renegotiation of the agreements that is fair, equitable and not burdensome for the island.

We want to have an opportunity to grow and contribute for generations to come.

No one is defending us. Everyone has their own agenda. The FOMB, the government, the bondholders. Everyone.

What will be your legacy Honorable Judge Swain? How will our history books portray you?

How do you want millions of Puerto Ricans to remember you?

Please do what is right and rule against this agreement on January 16th's 2019 hearing.

My brother Francisco deserve mores. My little cousin Marcela, deserves more.

Best Regards,

Maria Mercedes Rodriguez Rivera

Dear Honorable Judge Taylor Swain,

I am Monserate Malavé. I am a retiree living in San Lorenzo for the last 51 years, a little bit more than half a century. A lot of things are going on in Puerto Rico, some for the good and a lot for the bad. Many of us just seem to be spectators in this political game watching how vultures scavenge what's left of Puerto Rico among many other things. We are probably at fault for electing those who brought us to this economic disaster but with your appointment to oversee this case many of us have the belief that the right thing will be done. That justice will be served for all parties and not just a few. I personally see in you hope of things getting better. That Puerto Rico's future will be salvaged – Rescued and Re-claimed – for all generations to come.

So, I writing to you as a concerned citizen. I am very disappointed and worried about the actions that the Financial Oversight and Management Board (FOMB) is taking to address the fiscal crisis. The agreement made with COFINA bondholders will drag Puerto Rico into another never-ending economic crisis that will lead Puerto Rico into another debt default and will only cause more harsh austerity measures, cuts in public services and pensions. We request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that is legal, fair for both sides and not burdensome for the country. I am Odniel Pagan. I write to you because I am very disappointed and worried about the actions that the Financial Oversight and Management Board (FOMB) is taking to address the fiscal crisis. The agreement made with COFINA bondholders will drag Puerto Rico into another never-ending economic crisis that will lead Puerto Rico into another debt default and will only cause more harsh austerity measures, cuts in public services and pensions. We request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that is legal, fair and not burdensome for the country. We know this debt has been imposed on Puerto Rico without a due process of a real comprehensive audit that allows us to really know how the debt was issued and to ensure that it is paid justly and legally. Please do what is right and rule against this agreement on January 16th's 2019 hearing.

Sincerely,

Odniel Pagan

Dear Honorable Judge Swain,

As a Puerto Rican living on the island, and former NYC resident, I ask you to please reject the COFINA agreement, which, if approved, would perpetuate our fiscal crisis and compromise our finances for the next 40 years. We are still waiting for a full audit on how this huge debt was acquired, just like other countries have done in the past. You have the future of a whole country at your hands, please use your power wisely. It keeps getting harder to live on this island as we see so many of our government services getting cut.

Respectfully,

Ramon Olivencia

Dear Honorable Judge Taylor Swain,

I am Rebeca Agosto Rosa, currently a doctoral student at the University of Illinois. This email concerns the debt restructuring case in the Puerto Rican government-debt crisis, specifically the COFINA agreement. I write to you as a Puerto Rican affected by the crisis, and in support of the Frente Ciudadano por la Auditoria de la Deuda.

I am very disappointed and worried about the actions that the Financial Oversight and Management Board (FOMB) is taking to address the fiscal crisis. The agreement made with COFINA bondholders will drag Puerto Rico into another long-lasting economic crisis that could lead to another debt default and will only cause harsher austerity measures, including cuts in public services and pensions, which is of great concern to me. I worry about my parents and siblings present, and my own future.

We request a fair renegotiation of the agreements that is legal and not burdensome for the country. We know this debt has been imposed on Puerto Rico without due process, a comprehensive audit that allows us to truly know how the debt was issued and ensures that it is paid justly and legally. Please, think about our people when you make this decision. Rule against the agreement on the January 16, 2019 hearing.

Sincerely,

Rebeca J. Agosto Rosa

Dear Judge Swain,

My name is Sergio Santos and I live in Puerto Rico. My family business caters to lower-middle class working people in Puerto Rico. I'm writing to let you know that the people of Puerto Rico do not support the COFINA agreement under the courts consideration. The current government does not represent the interests of the Puerto Rican people and this agreement is testament to that since it guarantees massive profits to vulture funds while disproportionately harming local investors and guaranteeing an unsustainable 40 year tax burden upon the working people of Puerto Rico.

I assure you that the People of Puerto Rico will soon recover their government by voting out all the career politicians. When we do, we will challenge in court the constitutionality of all of COFINA debt since COFINA was created only as a way to bypass our constitutional limits on debt.

Sincerely,

Sergio Santos

Cofina and Promesa raping Puerto Rico

Dear Judge Swain:

We in Puerto Rico remind you that the original PROMESA board are, in fact, the self-appointed members who put the island into the (documented) partially ILLEGAL debt (UBS, Santander & Banco Popular made ilegal paper transfers) for personal and corporate profiteering. That is why they are blocking a public audit of the so called debt forced on the people of Puerto Rico.

Please stop them from continuing the raping of Puerto Rico. We ask that you vote against the agreement with COFINA, an imposition that will tie the island up for 40 years to benefit vulture manipulators that were not elected to the uncannily powerful positions they now hold. Please also be aware that former governor Fortuño is still counseling the Fiscal Control Board (behind closed curtains) modifying laws to their benefit.

Please keep up your good work and give Puerto Rico a much needed release from a crime we the people did not commit. Thank you for your consideration.

Wil Rodriguez,
